

LADIES CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL – Catherine Holland (black shirt) v Tricia Watson (purple shirt)

Game 1. In her second final of the day Catherine was up against Tricia Watson. Tricia won the spin and then aced the first point of the match with a good serve. The first rallies were short and points exchanged as both players tried to find some rhythm. Catherine was at 4-3 and Tricia took some initiative and some good drops moving to 6-4. The next three points produced some better rallies with Tricia opening up an 8-5 advantage. Catherine found a couple of good cross-courts and a reverse boast to level the game at 8 all. Tricia again produced a couple of good drops to go to game ball. Catherine responded with a drop and a deep backhand drive to level at 10 all. Tricia played a nervous drop to the front which Catherine countered with a straight drive passing Tricia securing a game ball for Catherine which she held and closed out the first game 12-10.

Game 2. The second game started with some scrappy play and errors from both players as the game moved to 5 all. Catherine then found some rhythm and took control of the game moving Tricia round the court. Some good rallies and some clean execution of the right shot from the openings that Catherine created. Catherine moved through to close out the second game 11-6, now in a 2-0 lead.

Game 3. Catherine started the third by serving out and Tricia took the first four points aided with some tins from Catherine to go 4-1 up. Catherine lost focus and Tricia took advantage with some good serves. Tricia quickly closed out the game 11-2.

Game 4. Catherine took stock maybe the last game a result of this being her second match, and started the third game with a great volley kill into the front right hand corner. Catherine then found a clinical run of points putting Tricia under pressure across the court. Catherine moved to 7-0 Tricia stopped the run with a drop to take a point, but Catherine was not to be stopped and quickly closed out the game 11-1 and the match 3-1.

Catherine Holland Won 3-1: 12-10, 11-6, 2-11, 11-1

