

Dalgety Bay Squash Juniors February 2019 Tournament

Saturday 23rd February saw the second junior competition of 2019 take place. The first competition run by one of the clubs' Level 1 Coaches, Lewis Thomson.

Five of the club's juniors took part in the competition, with a range of experience levels on show. A strong day of competition saw each of the players taking part in 4 matches, in a round robin draw, showcasing the hard work they put in during their training.

The competition also gave the juniors an opportunity to practice their marking, as pairs teamed up to referee the day's matches. Players also took turns as photographer for the competition. There was even a special guest, as Abigail Scott assisted with some of the marking.

The opening encounter of the day saw tournament debutant Daniel Scott play in his first competitive match. Daniel showed no sign of nerves, playing some excellent shots.

Adam and James both had tight matches through the day, with great skill and sportsmanship on show. Adam showed great determination and endurance to finish some long rallies, and good technique was on show from James throughout.

The day's only 5-game match was a thrilling encounter between the eventual winner and runner-up Arran and Jenny, which saw an exhausting 17-19 4th game. Challenging rallies throughout and some great tactical play from both players provided great entertainment for spectators.
